PUBLIC COMMENT:

Cherie Barlow: Mrs. Barlow, wife of Commissioner David Barlow, spoke about the heart of leadership and the five core traits of leadership. Mrs. Barlow closed her remarks by addressing each Commissioner and encouraging them in their leadership roles and asking them to guard their hearts.

Alice Jones: Mrs. Jones said she embraced those who stepped forward to be appointed into leadership positions in the county. She stated that she has been before many commission boards and numerous staff, and that she listens to everything that is said. She said the last Board of Commissioners meeting was hurtful, to the point of tears, and she said the Board needs to work under the umbrella of leadership. She asked the Commissioners to do the right thing for all the citizens. She said that people who “look like me” did not get the resolution or its contents, and they did not get the memo that it would be shared on the Agenda. She said the people were bitter, argumentative, and making unbecoming arguments. Mrs. Jones said she learned at a young age about the process of a democracy. She asked for the vote to benefit for the good of the County. She said that she has been a proponent for Kenwood Park, and that she wants the best for the park and all of Fayette County. She asked the Board to listen to the constituents who want Kenwood Park to be completed. Mrs. Jones asked the Board to work with Commissioner Coston on the Kenwood Park project and she asked the Board to listen to its constituents.

Emory McHugh: Mr. McHugh spoke for approximately twenty-four minutes about his desire to “close the loop” on his previous discussion concerning the budget and finances of Fayette County for its fiscal year ended June 30, 2014. He maintained that Fayette County failed to adopt a fiscally responsible budget, gave examples of his concern, and stated that the county has published as part of its audited financial statements that it lost $3 million as a business enterprise. He speculated that it appeared, based on responses he received from the Finance Department, that the actual operating loss “may have been much larger than the one reported.” Mr. McHugh then spoke about his concerns with regard to the County’s General Fund, Local Maintenance and Improvement Grant (LMIG) revenues, and employee turnover rates and reasons for turnover. Mr. McHugh stated that his professional opinion was that the County does not have an adopted budget that complies with the requirements of O.C.G.A. 36-81-2 and 36-81-3. Mr. McHugh also spoke about other concerns with opening the Old Jail Facility, the Stormwater Utility Fund, Public Facilities Authority Bonds, and the debt service coverage factor on Water Revenue Bonds. He spoke about the County’s recent Aaa Rating it has received from Moody’s Investors Service, and he attributed the improved rating to a change of rating agency’s methodology for rating municipal bonds in January 2014.

Alice Jones: Ms. Alice Jones returned to the public comment podium and asked for a copy of the budget so she could review the material presented by Mr. McHugh.

Temporary Recess: Commissioner Brown asked for a brief recess. The Board recessed at 8:45 p.m. and returned to Official Session at 8:48 p.m.

ADMINISTRATOR’S REPORTS:

Response to Public Comments: County Administrator Steve Rapson responded to the public comments given by Mrs. Jones and to the concerns expressed by Mr. McHugh.

Fayette County Sheriff's Office Medical Contract: County Administrator Steve Rapson stated staff worked with the Sheriff's Office in regards to its medical contract. He said staff worked with Major Anthony Rhodes at the Jail. He explained that the current health provider would provide the service and the Sheriff would enter into the contract for the service. Mr. Rapson explained that the contract was roughly 8.5% less than the previous contract resulting in a savings of about $67,000.00.

March 17, 2015 Special Called Meeting: County Administrator Steve Rapson reported that earlier in the afternoon Fayette FACTOR came to the county with a $125,000.00 grant for a Drug-Free Community Support Program. He said they wanted the grant on the Agenda since the deadline is on March 18, 2015. He stated that the Board would likely need to have a Special Called Meeting in order to approve the grant prior to the deadline. The Board consented to hold a Special Called Meeting on Tuesday, March 17, 2015 at 7:00 p.m. to consider the Fayette FACTOR grant.

COMMISSIONERS' REPORTS:

Commissioner Ognio: Commissioner Ognio said he had problems with the procedures where motions are made prior to discussion. He said the procedures did not allow for staff to make a presentation without a motion, and he asked to return to the previous way to conducting meetings since it was an efficient process. He said the Board was not in existence to play games but to serve the citizens.

Commissioner Coston: Commissioner Coston thanked the people for coming to the meeting and participating. She stated that there had been comments and statements concerning the Board working together. She said she has been working with her fellow Commissioners. She said the Board is working collaboratively on the issues and that everyone's heart was in the right place. She replied to Commissioner Ognio stating she was not on the Board to play games but to do what is best for all of the people of Fayette County.

Commissioner Brown: Commissioner Brown stated there had been good comments from the citizens; including from Mr. McHugh. He said he appreciated Mr. McHugh's ability to speak on his issues since most governments limit the time people are able to speak. He said Fayette County is an open government-styled county. Commissioner Brown acknowledged that the auditors have found items, and that is the reason Fayette County has auditors. He added that each time the auditors bring up matters; Fayette County will make the appropriate changes and will make the necessary repairs. Commissioner Brown answered some of the concerns Mr. McHugh gave during Public Comments, and he also addressed Mrs. Jones' comments pertaining to Kenwood Park that she gave during Public Comments. Commissioner Brown closed his comments to address the matter of meeting consistency and said all he has ever asked for is a level playing field.

Commissioner Coston: Commissioner Coston stated that there is a meeting forthcoming with the constituents regarding Kenwood Park, and she stated any of the Commissioners were welcome to attend.

He stated that the book has a section concerning the Oddo family and their accomplishments while living in Fayette County. Commissioner Barlow spoke about his attendance at the 17th Annual Blended Heritage Celebration at the Fayette County Library. He stated he continues to provide Meals on Wheels and how he attended the Religious Freedom rally. Commissioner Barlow spoke about an initiative passed by the Association County Commissioners of Georgia (ACCG). Commissioner Barlow spoke about attending church where the pastor spoke about the 50th anniversary of the Selma March of the sermon concerning about how Jesus Christ can heal race relations.

Chairman Oddo: Chairman Oddo stated that he was not playing games and that everyone was doing as best as they could. He said these matters would be discussed at the County Retreat. Chairman Oddo said he wished Mr. McHugh would remain in the meeting after giving his comments so that he could hear the answers that were given to his concerns. Commissioner Oddo spoke about a man who was revived after following instructions provided by an Emergency 911 Officer, and he said it was one of the things that the County does that often is not known. Commissioner Oddo mentioned that the Georgia Department of Transportation (GDOT) would hold a public Open House meeting at Harps Crossing Baptist Church concerning possible road improvements at the intersection of State Route 92 and Antioch Road. He said the meeting would be from 4:00-7:00 p.m., and that a public notice and press release would be issued on the meeting.
